Harshita Arora

ACADEMIC PROFILE

Harshita Arora is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Management with over 4 years of teaching experience. She is currently pursuing her Ph.D. in Human Resource Management (HRM) from Swami Rama Himalayan University (SRHU), Dehradun, and holds an MBA in HRM and Information Technology (IT) from Uttarakhand Technical University (UTU), Dehradun. She has also qualified the UGC-NET in December 2024 and successfully completed a Certificate Course in Human Resource Management from the Symbiosis Centre for Distance Learning (SCDL), Pune.

Her academic interests include Human Resource Practices, Organizational Behavior, and Emerging Technologies in Management. She has contributed to academia through book chapters and conference presentations, and has participated in various workshops and Faculty Development Programmes (FDPs) related to HRM, Research Methodology, and emerging trends in Management. Dedicated to academic excellence and scholarly research, she continues to actively engage in teaching, research, and professional development.