

Invited Lecture on Block Chain

Department of Computer Science and Engineering in collaboration with CSI, Haridwar Chapter organized a lecture on Block Chain and Data Science on March 6, 2018 in FET. Invited Speaker and guest, Mr. Mani Madhukar Architect & Developer Advocate, Ecosystem Development Team, IBM India Pvt Ltd introduced students with the idea, importance and application of blockchain to various sectors. He also pointed various resources available online to get the understanding of the application and code that is currently being used by the industry. He pointed out the languages currently used by the industry like Go, python etc. Mr. Suyash Bhardwaj coordinated the session, Mr. Nishant Kumar and Mr. Namit Khanduja were present. Dr. Mayank Aggarwal presented the vote of thanks and felicitated the invited guest with a memento.

