

Invited Lecture on Personality Development on August 20, 2018

Department of CSE, FET organized a personality development & communications lecture by Ms. Kavita Panjwani for the students of first year CSE on August 20, 2018. The lecture focus on self-motivation, self-confidence, management of emotions such as fear and anger, problem solving and decision making skills etc. The participated in activity based learning to develop self-confidence and creative thinking. The lecture was appreciated with huge participation of more than 100 students. After the lecture a special Q and A round was conducted to solve the problems faced by students. The lecture covered, personality development, leadership, stress management and time management for better future aspects. Mr. Ashwani presented a memento to the invited speaker and the Dr. Mayank Aggarwal presented vote of thanks. Mr. Suyash Bhardwaj, Mr. Vivudh Fore, Mr. Agam Goyal, Mr. Nishant and Mr. Namit Khanduja from CSE department attended the session.

