Invited lecture on Docker and Big Data

Department of Computer Science and Engineering, Faculty of Engineering and Technology in association with CSI, Haridwar Chapter organized an Invited lecture by Mr. Gurukiri on the topic "Big Data and Docker Technology" on March 20, 2018. Students from CSE II year and CSE III year participated in the event. Mr. Gurukiri told about the latest technologies that are driving the great companies, how linux and docker software are providing platform to run various applications based on big data. The informative theory session was followed by lab session in which students were informed about the installation of these software on a Linux based system. The event was coordinated by Mr. Namit Khanduja, Dr. Mayank Aggarwal presented vote of thanks and Mr. Nishant Kumar and Mr. Suyash Bhardwaj of dept of CSE were present in the event.