

Workshop on “Protection and Exploitation of Innovation & Intellectual Property Rights”
on February 22, 2019

Department of Computer Science & Engineering, Faculty of Engineering and Technology in collaboration with CSI, Haridwar Chapter and IPR Cell, GKV organized a workshop on “Protection and Exploitation of Innovation & Intellectual Property Rights” on February 22, 2018 at FET.

The workshop started by welcoming the invited speaker by presenting a souvenir to Dr. Sumanjeet Singh by the Dr. Sunil Panwar, Dean, FET and Prof. V. K. Singh, Incharge IPR Cell, GKV. Mr. Suyash Bhardwaj introduced the speaker and coordinated the event.

The invited speaker Dr. Sumanjeet Singh explained the concept of Intellectual property and associated rights with it. Dr. Sumanjeet has a wide experience in the field of e-commerce and IPR issues. He discussed the problems faced during acquiring the rights of the idea, the process and impact of patents, the services provided by the government and various types of funding available for promoting authentic research work.

The workshop was attended by CSE II year, CSE III year, ECE II year, EE II year students, the event was coordinated by Mr. Suyash Bhardwaj and Mr. Nishant Kumar of Department of CSE. Mr. Nishant Kumar presented vote of thanks to the speaker. Mr. Vivudh Fore, Mr. Agam Goyal, Mr. Vipin and Mr. Ashwani of department of CSE were also present.

