

Gurukula Kangri (Deemed to be University) was founded on March 4, 1902 by Swami Shraddhanandaji with the sole aim to revive the ancient Indian Gurukula System of education, on the bank of Ganges at a distance of about 6 km.

About the Department

The Department of Ancient Indian History, Culture & Archaeology has a history of five decades. It was founded in 1962 and is presently a part of the Faculty of Oriental Studies. The aim of the department is to make the study of archaeology and culture interdisciplinary. Research undertaken by the department has contributed to the development of the discipline of Indology in the country. Its faculty members to name a few, Acharya Ram Dev, Chandragupta Vedalankar, JaychandaVidyalankar, HariduttaVedalankar, StyaketuVidyalnkar and B.C. Sinha made notable contribution to the field by writing a number of volumes on various aspects of history and Culture of South Asia and South East Asia.

About

Join us for Heritage Week 2024, a vibrant celebration of our rich cultural and historical heritage. Gurukula Kangri Vishwavidyalaya, a center of ancient repository, will be celebrating this week-long event that brings together communities, historians, art lovers, and culture enthusiasts to explore and honor the traditions, monuments, art, and stories that have shaped our shared past. In 2024, we propose organizing a week-long event under the theme “Tangible and Intangible Heritage: A Time Travel from Our Ancestors to Us”. The event will run from November 19th to 25th, 2024, and will focus on engaging the students in activities that highlight the importance of cultural diversity, history, and heritage conservation. Heritage Week is a globally recognized initiative aimed at celebrating and promoting the preservation of tangible and intangible cultural heritage. We seek support and partnerships to make this celebration a memorable and impactful one, promoting heritage preservation for generations to come.

Proposed Activities

1. Inauguration

Heritage Week begins with an inaugural address and a keynote by Hon. Chief Guest on the importance of cultural preservation, followed by screenings on historical and archaeological heritage.

Day 2: Pottery Workshop: Exploring Ancient Craftsmanship

Join us for a hands-on Pottery Workshop that explores the ancient craft of pottery making. This workshop will allow participants to learn traditional techniques, connecting with the skills and heritage of our ancestors.

Day 3: Rangoli and Painting Competition

We cordially invite you to the Rangoli and Painting Competition, celebrating India's rich cultural heritage. This event aims to showcase traditional artistry while promoting creativity and expression among participants.

Day4. Heritage Quiz and Competitions

Test your knowledge of history, art, and culture in a fun and engaging heritage quiz open to students, with exciting prizes to win!

Day 5: Lecture By the Faculties

The Heritage Week lecture will explore Ancient India's civilizations, architectural wonders, and contributions to science and philosophy, emphasizing the importance of preserving our rich cultural heritage.

Day 6: Heritage Walks

Participate in a heritage walk from Gurukul Kangri Vishwavidyalaya to Har Ki Pauri, focusing on the preservation of our cultural heritage. This walk will highlight the historical significance of the Ganga and its connection to our civilizations.

Day 7: Valedictory day

As our heritage journey comes to a close, through workshops, craft, and tales, it grows. On our final day, we walk the hallowed way, to Gurukul's punya bhumi, where wisdom lay.

In ancient footsteps, young hearts tread, with stories and heritage deeply wed.
