Personality Development, grooming and career opportunities

A workshop on the topic "Personality Development, grooming and career opportunities" was held on 11th March, 2025 at Kanya Gurukul Campus, Haridwar. The lecture was delivered by Mr. Sonu Chaudhary, public relations manager from Electronics Service and Training Centre, Haridwar.

The session was aimed at highlighting several aspects of personality development, interview etiquettes and career opportunities for the students of humanities. The lecture was attended by research scholars, students of UG & PG and faculties of English department.

Mr. Sonu Chaudhary started the lecture emphasizing on the importance of communication skills and etiquettes in the professional world. He discussed some fundamentals of being more presentable and confident in interviews. The session was divided into two parts. The first part focused on personality enhancement, spoken skills, and a brief overview of job opportunities for English students in different sectors. The second part of the session focused on various courses offered by Electronics Service & Training Centre, which is under MSME, Government of India.

The lecture highlighted the relevance of technical knowledge such as JAVA, Python, proficiency in MS office and certificate courses such as Nursery Teacher Training (NTT) and Yoga Teacher Training in today's job market. At the conclusion of the session, the resource person answered questions from the students providing valuable insights. The students left the session with a renewed sense of motivation and a deeper understanding of different career opportunities.
