

Academic Visit to Crime Literature Festival

Department of English

Kanya Gurukul Campus, Dehradun

November 30th, 2024

Dehradun: On October 30, 2024, students of Kanya Gurukul Campus, Dehradun participated in the second edition of the Crime Literature Festival 2024 held at Hyatt Centric, Dehradun. The visit was organized by the Department of English under the supervision of Dr. Reena Verma, along with research scholar Ishita Bhatt, Shristi Malkoti, and Saijasi Rawat.

The festival featured insightful lecture sessions by prominent panelists, exploring the art of crime writing, character development, and the ethical dimensions of storytelling. The discussions proved highly inspiring and practical for students aspiring to become writers.

Students also had the opportunity to interact with authors and industry professionals, enabling them to gain a deeper understanding of the literary world. This experience ignited creativity and passion among the participants, equipping them with the tools to pursue their aspirations in crime fiction writing.

This enriching visit marked an important step in fostering literary talent at Kanya Gurukul Campus, Dehradun.
