Report on Special Academic Lecture on “Indian Aesthetic Tradition”

Lecture on “Indian Aesthetic Tradition” Organized at Kanya Gurukul Campus, Dehradun

On 10 March 2026, the Department of English organized a special academic lecture on the topic “Indian Aesthetic Tradition” at Kanya Gurukul Campus, Dehradun. The lecture aimed to acquaint students with the rich heritage and philosophical foundations of Indian aesthetic thought.

The program was organized by Dr. Reena Verma, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Kanya Gurukul Campus, Dehradun. The session featured Dr. Hariom Rawat from Government P.G. College, Thalissain, as the guest speaker.

The program commenced with a brief introductory address by Ms. Shristi Malkoti, Guest Lecturer, who welcomed the guest speaker and the participants and introduced the theme of the lecture.

During his lecture, Dr. Rawat elaborated on various aspects of the Indian aesthetic tradition and highlighted its significance in understanding Indian art, literature, and philosophy. He explained classical concepts related to beauty, emotion, and artistic expression, providing valuable insights into the depth and richness of Indian aesthetic thought.

The lecture was attended by students from different departments of the campus, who listened attentively and actively participated in the discussion. The session had an interactive question-and-answer segment in which students shared their ideas and sought further clarification. The program concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Dr. Reena Verma, who expressed her sincere gratitude to Dr. Hariom Rawat for his insightful and enriching lecture.
