Research Methodology & Citation Style

Guest Lecture on Research Methodology & Citation Style a guest lecture on the topic of Research Methodology and Citation Style was organised by the department of English, Kanya Gurukul Campus on 3rd February 2025 featuring Mr. Madam Lal, Deputy Librarian, Gurukul Kangri Deemed University, Haridwar. The lecture aimed to provide the students an understanding of Research Methodology & Citation style and its relevance in research work. The lecture commenced with an overview of the term “Research ” as given by P.M Cook. The discussion included various types of research including pure, applied and action research, the formulation of research problems and hypothesis formulation. He also discussed various steps in research problems. The lecture provided a basic understanding of research methodology and differences between different styles of citation such as APA and MLA. Dr. Mudita Agnihotri, Dr. Manjusha Kaushik, Dr Sugandha Saini, research scholars and students of UG and PG were present in the lecture. The discussion was received by the students with enthusiasm and it provided valuable insights on research methodology. The session concluded with an interactive session.
